

Fall 2017

The Model Government Service & Public Affairs Initiative at Penn Law is devoting increased resources to best prepare students to be leaders in government and policymaking. Students and faculty engage with some of the most pressing government and public policies issues of the day. Here are highlights from the past semester. Happy holidays and enjoy the winter break!

Fall 2017 Policy Fellow: Shira Perlmutter L'83

Perlmutter shared her on-the-ground experience working on policy and international affairs issues at the USPTO.

New article by Prof. Coglianese clarifies & bolsters controversial administrative law doctrine

He offers new framework for understanding a controversial tenet of administrative law.

Celebrating the third class of Government Summer Fellows

Learn more about our student fellows and see photos from our annual dinner.

Prof. Yoo comments on legal challenges to the net neutrality rollback in Wired

Yoo serves on the FCC Broadband Deployment Advisory Committee.

Fall 2017 Distinguished Policy Fellow: Nancy Nord

Nord discussed her extensive legal career, including her role as Commissioner for the Consumer Products Safety Commission.

Apply for Summer Funding

At Penn Law there are no financial barriers to taking unpaid summer internships in the public sector, or pursuing public interest work anywhere in the U.S. or abroad.

3501 Sansom Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104 (map)
215.898.7483